no matter where you are headed, randstad risesmart will help you accelerate your journey.

job search | career change | entrepreneurship | semi-retirement

get started →

https://register.risesmart.com or email careerservices@randstadrisesmart.com

everything you need for a successful career transition

As a courtesy from your employer, you now have access to world-class outplacement services through Randstad RiseSmart. As your partner in career transition, our team of professionals provides a three-tier approach to help you successfully land your next opportunity.

→ career coaching

Connect with your personal career coach to cover the topics most important to you, such as:

- job search basics
- online and in-person networking skills
- interviewing advice
- mock interview practice
- interview follow-up strategies
- negotiation skills

Customize your coaching sessions to meet your needs – all on the same topic or a variety of topics.

→ professional branding

Make a lasting impression by recieving dedicated support to develop an optimized resume/CV, cover letter and professional online brand.

→ job search resources

Based on your career goals, skills and preferences, we help you identify the best job opportunities and assist with interview preparation. You also have access to articles and other career search content and resources covering a wide range of topics, including:

- salary negotiation
- interview techniques
- networking advice
- job search skills

These resources are available to you until the end of your program. If you have any questions about the specifics of your program, please contact your HR representative.

strong results & satisfaction

'My career coach made a difference in so many regards and really contributed to this achievement in my career.'
jamie m.

'I felt completely unprepared to search for a new job. The services helped me understand what I needed to do to have a healthy attitude and set my expectations about the job search process.'
robert s.

randstad risesmart

www.randstadrisesmart.com | 877.384.0004 | careerservices@randstadrisesmart.com